"We began using Jackrabbit in January of 2007 when we realized, as a small business, it would be too difficult for us to have our own in-house IT department. Before using Jackrabbit, we had to use a handful of different programs, none of which matched its efficiency. Not only has Jackrabbit saved us lots of time and money, but it has increased our capacity to register, enroll and charge families allowing our company to grow exponentially. From a customer service standpoint, they are extremely helpful and accommodating when it comes to our individual needs. I highly recommend Jackrabbit."
